

Historical Newspapers Online

There is no one-stop shopping for newspapers but the following will help...

- Chronicling America – Library of Congress Historical Newspapers 1789-1924
https://familysearch.org/learn/wiki/en/Library_of_Congress_Chronicling_America
- Online Historical Newspapers – A finding aid to online newspapers
<https://sites.google.com/site/onlinenewspapersite/Home>
- The Ancestor Hunt – Historical newspaper webinars, updates and links; “15,000 Free US Historical Newspaper Links” – <http://www.theancestorhunt.com/>
- Elephind – A search engine focused on only historical, digitized newspapers. Be sure to read the ‘Getting Started’ and ‘Search Tips’ tabs. <http://elephind.com/>
- Digital State Archives – Visit state page and look for newspapers :
<http://www.digitalstatearchives.com/>
- Small Town Newspapers - Over 250 small town papers - 1865 to present
<http://www.smalltownpapers.com/>
- Google Newspapers - Google is no longer scanning newspapers but an archive search is available. Not organized by state. <http://news.google.com/newspapers>
- State Digital Newspaper Programs – Do a Google search: Kansas digital newspapers. Substitute your state of interest in place of Kansas.
- Obituaries – Use a Google search, Legacy.com and DeathIndexes.com, obits may also have been added to Find A Grave memorials.
- Other Finding aids to online newspapers - Put the terms in search box
 1. Research Wiki on FamilySearch.org - ‘United States Newspapers’
 2. Wikipedia - ‘Online Newspaper Archives’
- Mesa FamilySearch Library – offers many subscription sites that include varied newspaper collections: FamilySearch.org, NewspaperArchive.com, Ancestry.com, Fold3, FindMyPast.
- Well known & popular subscription sites: $$
 1. NewspaperArchive.com
 2. GenealogyBank.com
 3. Newspapers.com